Illuminate the Beauty and Truth Within Yourself

The College Of Metaphysical Studies course, Mandala – The Sacred Circle, will be held on Saturday January 10th, and January 17th, 2015 at the Clearwater Campus, 18514 U.S. 19 N., Clearwater from 10a.m.-4p.m. This comprehensive course is 14 lessons and is meant to introduce you to the process of the ritual of the Mandala. The instructor is Rev. Deanna Morisi. Tuition is $50.00 per session.

What is a Mandala? Mandala is a Sanskrit word meaning “circle”. Why make Mandals? Is it pertinent to me? What does it look like? Can you see it? Can you feel it? This fully illustrated course can answer these questions and many more! Learn what your personal symbol is and learn about your authentic self. Know yourself with the cosmic consciousness or oneness of ALL THERE IS. This enjoyable but deeply informative course explains the mysteries of the Mandala. You can learn how the Mandala, through direct experience, facilitates healing for yourself and others.

We live in an age when scientists are just beginning to investigate the "non-physical matrix" that makes up the universe. Find out how a scientist and a therapist reconcile their two approaches to life. Such reconciliations challenge the very foundations of our conception of our lives -- our religions, our philosophies. How can I lend assistance to my physician while my physician is helping me? Is there a way to make the invisible visible? Where do I stop and others begin? How can I be in touch with myself? Will I ever “find” myself? What is my purpose, my role in life? Through the exercises in this course these and many more questions can be answered. If you have ever felt insecure or unsure of yourself, discover, in this course how to change into the secure, fully functioning, fully aware person that you are.
